CANDELABRAS

Kanangra

Two slim timber rails carrying a row of seven frosted glass rods, for long tables and open-plan rooms.

Kanangra is two slim timber rails, joined by small satin aluminium hangers, carrying a row of vertical frosted glass rods that glow evenly from end to end. It fills a long table, a kitchen island or a double-height space with soft light, and the rhythm of the rods recalls the cliffs it's named for.
